

We are looking for an experienced fundraising officer to help us secure income to support our work with homeless and vulnerable dogs.

What will you be doing?

We are a small social enterprise with a passion for supporting vulnerable animals at home and abroad. We take on ambitious projects and need support to ensure that our projects are sustainable. We are looking for a fundraising officer who will be able to assist us with fundraising development & implementation.

You will be: Developing fundraising strategies, engaging with other volunteers, searching for grants & applying for funding. Approaching corporates for partnership opportunities, communicating with current fundraising partners and donors. Reporting to the directors. Delivering speeches & presentations, executing professionally constructed communications with partners and potential partners, accurate database record keeping, event marketing & post event follow ups.

What are we looking for?

A passion for fundraising

A desire to help a small organisation grow

Good organisational skills

An understanding of the financial constraints of a social enterprise

You need to be comfortable & confident engaging with others

Good IT skills

A degree in a relevant discipline

3 years fundraising experience

The ability to understand the aims of our organisation

Must like dogs